Budva - so beautiful and so unique

IRRESISTIBLE - because it has preserved everything for which it was known as a Mediterranean place with Montenegrin spirit.

CULTURAL - because it has maintained the primacy of being the cultural centre and a place where artists find their oasis in search of the inspiration.

GLAMOROUS - because it has become a gathering place of the world's jet-set and a destination of good fun and great parties.

MYSTERIOUS - because there are still so many undiscovered areas of it, which could give great pleasure to adventurers.

TRADITIONAL - because it has been endowed with a great number of cultural monuments which on every step remind you of two and a half millennium of recorded history.

SERIOUS - because it has fulfilled all the infrastructure requirements for becoming a metropolis.

BUSINESS - because it has become a magnet for international business professionals.

SPORT - because it is a city with the largest number of sports trophies in Montenegro, the nursery of excellent sportsmen.

HOSPITABLE - because anyone who spent at least one day in Budva, tasted the specialty foods and dishes of this area and met with always benevolent but bold residents, has fallen in love with this city.

Budva, once a small tourist place which was always fascinating visitors by its melancholic charm, in only a few years has become a metropolis of tourism in the Mediterranean.

During the summer seasons Budva becomes a city of the youth, a big outdoor disco for all of those who want to have an unforgettable time, and at the same time an oasis for all of those wishing to enjoy seclusion.

Welcoming hosts and their inherent Mediterranean boldness going hand in hand with the mind-set typical of people living in the hilly hinterland, give this city a specific charm. Tasty, specialty foods and dishes that are typically prepared only within the Budva region, wine, olives and music capturing the spirit of the Mediterranean all will make you come again to the Montenegrin metropolis of tourism.

The Budva Riviera is one of the most beautiful in the Mediterranean. Besides the natural beauties, exceptional cultural and historical heritage and welcoming hosts, the Riviera offers the perfect place for an unforgettable vacation as well as a lot of fun and gastronomic pleasures to every guest.

One of the oldest settlements in the Mediterranean is nowadays the most important centre for tourism. Surrounded by mountain peaks rising from the dark-blue sea which has shaped the sandy beaches along it, Budva is rightly named "The Mediterranean Beauty".
